President Harry S. Truman has indicated that he will closely follow several policies of the late President Roosevelt, in order to bring a quick and lasting peace to the world.

The President's Proclamation

By the President of the United States of America:

A PROCLAMATION

The Allied nations, through sound common and eternal principles, have fought a long and unrelenting struggle. This victory has been achieved by the unyielding and resolute will of the free peoples of the world, who have sacrificed much and risked all. They have achieved this victory through the power of the United States of America.

This victory has been achieved with the support of the United States of America, and in accordance with the principles of freedom, democracy, and human dignity. The President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim a day of prayer.

All persons are requested to join in this day of prayer, to support the efforts of the United States and its allies in achieving peace and stability.

SUNDAY FROST OF THE YEAR

Government of the United States of America.

This victory has been achieved by the unyielding and resolute will of the free peoples of the world, who have sacrificed much and risked all. They have achieved this victory through the power of the United States of America.

This victory has been achieved with the support of the United States of America, and in accordance with the principles of freedom, democracy, and human dignity. The President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim a day of prayer.

All persons are requested to join in this day of prayer, to support the efforts of the United States and its allies in achieving peace and stability.

CIVILIAN LIVES VALUED

This victory has been achieved through the sacrifice and dedication of civilians and women, who have played a vital role in the war effort. The President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim a day of prayer.

All persons are requested to join in this day of prayer, to support the efforts of the United States and its allies in achieving peace and stability.
